

LadyJaye shares how to recognize – through Ageless Wisdom Principles - the ‘expected end’ as written in the Holy Bible.

March 24, 2017: The Principle of Natural Consequences

DID YOU KNOW?

Every living thing has within it a complete world of its own and the miracles of human body alone cannot be fully explained in terms of comprehension. The autonomic process alone was set into place by our Divine God, as a gift, and cannot be scrutinized into details or dissected by any kind of expert on earth.

I am today sharing the Principle of Natural Consequences, of following the Ageless Wisdom Principles, or not.

It is written in the Holy Bible that we are given ‘an expected end.’ I am here to tell you that it doesn’t just mean an ‘end’ to life, but an ‘expected end’ to all circumstances, jobs, end of the day, and even THINGS. When one commits to following the Principles, the benefits are innumerable and begin immediately to seem to come out of the woodwork around us as we are provided ‘spirit eyes’ to see the subtle beginnings. As we embrace the ‘little’ evidences, a spirit of loyalty to the Truths sets up within us the ability to ‘live by faith,’ KNOWING the larger issues are just as easily being resolved – even before we ask!

I maintain my exhortation to REMEMBER the perpetual immersion of GOOD in which we abide; the very same ‘omnipresence’ of GOD, the Divine Principle; try to comprehend that word ‘OMNIPRESENCE.’ And I maintain the reminding that our blissful life surrounds us and is walled out by NOT following the Principles; the blissful life IS the ‘natural consequence’ of existing and is only distorted by our own Selves. The Principles – of God, the DIVINE Principle – is the only way to break down those walls. It’s your ‘free will,’ your choice . . . are you up to it?

Learn to recognize the ‘little things,’ such as always having an easy entrance into the traffic line, when needed; or, if that didn’t happen, or say a traffic light took extra long to change, or something like that which we most commonly consider an annoyance and YET, consider it to be the manipulation of your circumstances by the Divine Universal Principle – of ‘God’ – to avoid what you didn’t know was ahead of you that would have been TRULY annoying or even disastrous! Adopt a new life motto – ‘it always works out!’ and watch that happen.

If we truly want to abide in that blissful life, which I remain adamant about exhorting to each listener, the entire attitude about everything MUST be your beginning . . . and that means an incorporation and utilization of the Principles I've shared earlier on Thought Responsibility and an Attitude of Gratitude in EVERYTHING. Don't be discouraged and don't give up...it takes PRACTICE, believe me!

Let me share some of the benefits of following the Principles, first, and then I will share some of the results you can 'expect' when you do not follow them; most of us will recognize ourselves among them both.

Ageless Wisdom teaches:

“What treasures a pure, free, and dauntless consciousness can give to humanity! But the inertia of habit holds the inexperienced one in fetters.” Do you sleep well or struggle with insomnia? Delve deep into your thoughts and conscience to see what hampers you from that delicious immediate slumber. Can you look people in the eye when you speak with them or are you afraid they will see your 'secrets' if you do? SETTLE those 'secrets' once and for all, committing not to repeat them, and feel the FREEDOM of looking another straight on, thereby instilling in that one to seek the same freedom.

“And when you meet a foe too great for you, behold, the son of man is at your door, and he can speak, and all the hosts of heaven will stand in your defense.” Trust me, those 'great' foes are many! Too often, we get in the habit of thinking everything is going wrong in our lives, one issue after another. And yet, if we were to maintain the peace of spirit and, instead of beating against that wall, ask for Universal Assistance, we would see it as ONE 'great foe' and in such recognition, also see our victory! Remember, the Principle of the Energies Which Rule Us . . . choosing to 'beat against the wall' when adversity impales us, is the same as turning those destructive energies against our own Selves.

“One may notice to what an extent aspiring people, even under the most unfavorable conditions, find strength to discover the Light. We watch over such light-bearers who overcome the most incredible difficulties. The Law has been sent; the Path has been indicated; let him who seeks find.” NOT just 'who overcome the most incredible difficulties,' but more like 'so they CAN overcome . . .' Be a light-bearer - it's easier than you think! Here is one imagery I've always loved: “When you boil a carrot in water, what happens to the carrot? The water changes it, right? But what happens if you boil a coffee bean in water; does the water change it, too? No! The COFFEE BEAN changes the WATER! So, what are YOU – carrot or coffee bean?”

“He who follows the Teaching (Principles) loses the passivity so cherished by people. But he who does not follow receives the full downpour of karma. Judge for yourselves who has chosen the right path. When you follow the Teaching, can there be failure? The Teaching brings refinement of consciousness as a great happiness. Where, then, to find a power equal to that which results from the Teaching? Thus, follow Our Teaching with great care.” I think we have all thought it - of ourselves, or of others – that when there are no attacks from the dark-side, no negativities, life just goes on the same day after day, then we ‘must be doing something RIGHT,’ right? LOL Welll, such ‘passivity’ is a sure setup for failure in the battle which can suddenly ensue unprovoked, for progress in prowess – spiritually POWER - is diminished from lack of exercise and activity. How will a warrior know his strength and abilities, lest he has been tested?

When right choices are made, even though the temptation of using worldly craftiness and methods instead, the entire universe moves on our behalf, causing ‘miracles’ – small and large, those ‘subtle evidences’ – to happen throughout the day. It is an autonomic process – a PRINCIPLE - set into motion by God, with creation, even as the law of gravity and breathing. To choose to make those right decisions without expecting anything in return, because you know it already so deeply within, is the ultimate of learning to live as Christ lived: “Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto you.” You ask: ‘How DO you ‘seek ye first?’ I say: ‘One decision at a time.’ You ask: ‘What IS the ‘kingdom of God?’ I say: ‘GOD’s way of doing things.’ Thus: “In each and every decision and choice, seek to do things God’s way.” It is that simple. . . not easy, but so simple.

I spoke before, about the most marvelous and worthy gift of ‘detachment’ within each person. Alan Hopking, author of ‘Esoteric Healing’ and Ageless Wisdom Teacher, states that each person has two sides to them: “There is the will of the personality and there is a will of the soul. These are not necessarily opposing, but they are usually different. The simplest way to come to grips with them is to realize the personality is born under the sun sign – say, Aquarius – and the soul is born under the rising sign, or ascendant - say, Leo.” He claims that after a thorough study of the indications of each, ‘The person is to aspire to the rising sign’s positive indications in their personality life; for instance replace, unify, or integrate that which is the less positive or lower characteristics in the personality.’

In a revelation I had about his statement, I saw the Principle of Detachment take place as my personality, my form, my body, all of which I call my ‘automaton - made for specific use by the soul’ – BECOMING the vehicle and my soul taking over as the driver and navigator, using my automaton eyes to see the world through the eyes of the soul – that would be the ‘spirit eyes’ spoken of in Ephesians 1:18 KJV as ‘eyes of understanding.’ I recognized that when we make a pact with the soul to let IT be in charge of our ‘actions-reactions,’ we must do so with the preparation of being tested!

The AWESOME thing about partnering with your soul is that you can leave ALL – I mean ALL – of the emotional and spiritual stuff to It, while you focus on the manual labor of your assignment or purpose or whatever needs to be done! That, my friend, is DETACHMENT and also called ‘unhampered liberty!’ How that works, as you sincerely attempt to live in this way, is that when the opportunity or temptation arises to resolve any issue or circumstance in the way in which you or the masses are accustomed, you may speedily and undauntingly choose the Right way and leave ALL the ‘consequences’ to the Soul! How sweet is THAT! LOL This is a good place to stop and make a list of those benefits to carry in your pocket until it all becomes ‘first nature’ to you! I’ll get you started:

When you step out in sincerity:

- The Universe rushes to help
- You’ll ALWAYS win, when that happens
- It ALWAYS works out
- When the REACTION is changed, the ACTION has to change or disappear
- What you learn in THIS lifetime is eternal and follows you into the next
- NO ONE escapes the ‘natural consequences,’ good OR bad
- All this, and more . . . ‘no matter WHAT it LOOKS lie!’

Now keep going...whatever Principle means the most to you at this moment in time, write it down and grab onto it like a lifeline, the others will follow!

It won’t take very long at all to find out that ‘it didn’t hurt, after all!’ when you went against the flow, that nobody seemed to really CARE that you did or even noticed, and that you’re looking back at a track record, now, of that ‘unhampered liberty’ and recognize the great Truth of the Principles of God! Take time to WALLOW in the freedom and everlasting Joy of such an awareness - not as in prideful, but as in awe and eternally grateful – it is a complete flip-side to life as you’ve known it! Speak very little of this portion of your podvig and what you have learned; let the results and your Right Livingness be the teacher. Ageless Wisdom teaches that we must talk less as it is one of the less desirable and most destructive habits – the ‘gift of unnecessary gab!’

Aha! And now the downside to all this knowledge and new-found spiritual light, is just what I spoke on last week about having ‘gales – rather HURRICANES – of circumstances' assail you! OMG, it's an eye-opener, for sure, but meant to be! It is meant for keeping you sharp in your new spiritual power and, like what it did to me, I'm sad to admit, it showed me a chink in my armor as I was increasingly bombarded throughout the day and I grew increasingly irritable and loud in my REACTIONS. I had much work to do in repair, and I am grateful to KNOW I have the POWER to repair, AS part of the Principle, even as I learned through the experience. Many times I have felt like I had to 'go back to square one!' But maybe that's what is meant by the words in the Bible that we are to 'occupy' until Christ comes again, huh?

Now, I will tell of the 'natural consequences' of NOT following the Principles. You will not need me to expound upon them. It will be quite distressing, so make sure you go to my website – AmritaNicoleMarketing.com – to get this audio and text again and read through the BENEFITS so you don't have nightmares over what you're about to hear! May this knowledge inspire you to FOLLOW the Principles and never again to feel the 'Hounds of Hell' breathing down your neck!

“When one breaks the Principles of God, more surely even than as results the breaking of any man-made principles, there is no limit to the chaos that must ensue . . . if not immediately, eventually and most often without warning. It also keeps that one in darkness, revolving continuously on the wheel of misery and want. Respect the Principles of God!”

“One should not spill poison carelessly. A great many may be infected, and no one will know where the poison may be spread. Dark poisoners, do you know all your victims? But you will not remain ignorant. Sight will be given you, and you will see the entire scope of your doings. Thus, do poisoners condemn themselves.”

“ ...Jesus said,

I am the lamp; Christ is the oil of life; the Holy Breath the fire ... I come to manifest the Christ to men and you receive me not, and you will dwell in darkness and in the shadow of the grave till you believe the words I speak.”

“Each instant man either creates or destroys. The world is filled with conflicting thoughts. A multitude of illnesses have been implanted by thoughts of destruction. A great number of murders take place at long distances from thoughts or from intersecting thoughts, but it is almost impossible to make man realize that his pre-eminence lies in continuous thinking. It is impossible to impress upon man how responsible he is for the quality of his thinking. The heart beats unceasingly, equally incessant is the pulse of thought. But it is not customary to talk about this. Man either creates or destroys.”

“The names of traitors are also recorded in the history of mankind. But where can traitors hide in the Subtle World, when their memory has been clarified? Not shame before others, but the unquenchable bitterness of infamy in the heart drives the traitors into ice and flame. And where are those who whispered treacheries into their ears? Why do they not succor their issue? They do not seek them out in the darkness. Terrible is the condition of traitors—murderers of body and spirit!”

“Conceit and suspicion are horrible diseases. The first gives rise to stupidity and ignorance. From the second, issue lies and treachery.”

I now speak to you of courage, for as you have seen, it takes the most determined mindset to step onto the path you have long suspected was the only way to your blissful life, which you have so often merely glimpsed. As Alice Bailey tell us: "There is no power on Earth which can prevent the advance of man towards his destined goal and no combination of powers can hold him back."

She goes on to encourage (and prepare?) us:

“It takes courage to make spiritual decisions and to abide by them; it takes courage to adjust your lives – daily and in all relations – to the need of the hour and to the service of mankind; it takes courage to demonstrate to those around you that the present world catastrophe is of more importance to you than the petty affairs of your individual lives and your humdrum contacts; it takes courage to discard the alibis which have prevented you from participating, to date, in the all-out effort which characterizes today the activities of (those who oversee humanity’s evolution); it takes courage to make sacrifices, to refuse time to non-essential activities, and to deal with the physical body as if it were free from all impediments; it takes courage to ignore frailties which may be present, the tiredness incident to a long life, the physical tendencies which handicap and limit your service, the sleeplessness which comes from world pressures or from a badly reulated life programme, and the nervousness and strain which are the common lot today; it takes courage to attack life on behalf of others, and to obliterate your own wishes in the emergency and need.”

Now, I encourage you, if you lack such courage: ‘ASK, and it shall be given: Faith, dear ones, and great courage, faint not; the Principles never falter for they are a portion of the Divine Principle – God.’

Because you cannot be reminded enough, I send you into the weekend to contemplate deeply, on this note from Vivika-Qi:

“When one determines to uphold the Principles of God, the entire universe comes to that one’s defense, in each and every moment. Remember: “Sincere effort counts!””
