

February 10, 2017 – Principle of Action-Reaction

Did you know? A single pin-head drop of our individual DNA has enough information in it to fill volumes of books reaching to the moon and 500 times past! OMG! I have not been taught on this subject, yet, in the Ageless Wisdom teachings, but I can't help but wonder if the information is gathered and stored in the eternal atom which is US individually and exclusively, lifetime after lifetime! Wow! I'd LOVE to read those books!

Before I get into the Principle of Action-Reaction, as I promised, let me encourage you:

Do not be dismayed at the difficulty in wrapping your head around the words I share of the Principles. They are meant to encourage the listener and extend hope that there IS another way to approach liberation from the worldly thinking and circumstances. There are many, many choices for assisting in changing habits and business is booming in such a field; until the Principles come alive to you, the choice which seems most fitting for you should be utilized to the best of one's ability.

However, once the success is received through the courageous utilization of a Principle, the victory is entire and eternal! What victories you leave with from this lifetime carries forward to all other lifetimes. The words I share will come to the forefront of the listener's mind as daily life is lived out and the timing for such revelation and understanding has arrived – when the 'light' comes on! It IS written on each soul the exact moment of enlightenment, of understanding the totality of 'GOD.' When that precise time comes, you'll find the barriers lifted; to attempt forcing forward spiritual movement of this kind without the guidance of the soul can be extremely dangerous to the yet fully evolved mind .

Alice Bailey writes: "There is no finality in the presentation of truth; it develops and grows to meet man's growing demand for light. Only that which you know for yourself and experience consciously within yourself is of importance and constitutes truth for you. That which may be told you by others – even by me – serves no vital purpose, except to enhance or corroborate an already known truth, or to create illusions or responsibility until it is either rejected or experienced by you in your own consciousness."

TRUE liberation is seldom instantaneous, but requires purposeful change and adjustment from within. Ageless Wisdom teacher, Alan Hopking, puts it: "It calls upon a person to make decisions from within, decisions which the SOUL wants, not what the little personality desires.” And also instructs: “Meditation governs all expansions of consciousness; it is a time of withdrawing within and exploring the realms of the soul.” In this practice, you become familiar with the sound of your own soul’s voice and become confident in its guidance. Until that moment of trust arrives, and if you are familiar with the Holy scriptures, just always weigh the guidance you sense from the soul against those scriptures. As a rule, your sincerity wraps you in protection from the dark side, yet that same sincerity makes you a prime target, so always be alert.

Therefore, when you pray to be freed of confusion regarding the Principles of which I share, pray most fervently for ‘understanding.’ It will come. The words describing the ‘Principles’ are explanations of the true Divine Energy and Forces behind the precepts, documented in the Bible, which Jesus came as Christ and taught through parables for easier understanding of how to live in that time of humanity’s evolution. We are now on the brink of greater understanding.

The seeds will grow within your sincere inner garden. Unhampered liberty – on earth as it is in heaven – is your rightful gift, now, in this lifetime. So PERSIST and never give up, for you dwell in and breathe ‘divine assistance!’ There is eternity provided for the soul perfection process, so relax, just simply ‘live’ – practicing harmlessness - and let your soul handle the flow.

NOW, we get into the tools for the Principle of ACTION-REACTION:

Everything ‘oppressive’ in our lives is a lie! Until humanity has evolved to completely recognize, live, and walk in the Principle of Harmlessness, we must, in the retraining process, handle circumstances or ‘obstacles’ in specific ways; MOST specifically, how they are perceived and our attitudes toward them.

God has made – immersed! – the world in pure goodness and given mankind Principles by which to access that goodness . . . or not. How we (mentally/ignorantly /cognitively) use them is our ‘free will’; to not access them – independently or rebelliously – and to just rely on our own base thoughts, is what brings about the chaos and negativity in our lives. Mankind has named this state of affairs as ‘Satan.’ This is repeated day after day and life after life until the thought process is evolved and retrained and finally, with much courage, the enlightened individual refuses to believe the ‘lies’ and responds against the flow of common man’s expected and customary response. The keynote of our lives, then, with the decision to walk the Path to right living, MUST be obedience to the highest that is in us, love to all beings in all kingdoms, and complete confidence in the power of the indwelling Christ Principle to demonstrate THROUGH the outer form of our personalities, the life of harmlessness and love.

When I think of this Principle, the first thing that comes to my mind is the vortex of perpetual conflict in which too many marriages find themselves and the rising divorce statistics as a result. So let me approach that example first and then it may be easier to grasp how to utilize the Principle in all other conflicts of daily life.

Souls are brought together for many reasons, but always toward perfection. Those drawn together through love have a special path. Those who can recognize it have there moment before witnesses to make the quality decision to the commitment of helping their partner in matrimony reach their goals, with no thought of self or concern for self's future. It is very much the law of 'laying down one's life for the other.' To make such a commitment means to commit to the lifelong challenge of living together in harmlessness, caring, and sharing; in intelligent loving and understanding as each works through often awkward traits until victory reigns; and to recognize the efforts and share the joy at each crossroad and victory.

The adamant caution is to be always aware of the spirit of control, which will inevitably attack any unsuspecting marriage; it comes in at the beginning, with the words 'I do' simply for the task of division. There cannot be 50/50 in a loving marriage, but more like 150/150; make sure the Spirit of Control knows THAT is your choice, when it tries to rear its ugly head!

Until divinity has been expressed in the home, and among those who know us well and are our familiar friends, it cannot be expected to express itself elsewhere. We must live as sons of God in the setting – albeit sometimes drab, or sordid – in which destiny places us; there is nowhere else at this stage of humanity's evolution in which that is possible. And until one learns the subordination to the GROUP will and need, with its lessons of sacrifice, understanding, and service, he can make no further progress on his spiritual path.

Spend time in concentrated thought each day, and often throughout the day, on how it would seem and feel in each situation - before it repeats itself, if you can; do the same for the inflicted person; think and plan how you will respond in the new positive way; then be brave enough to DO it. ASK for divine assistance to find the right way – AND to help you through it. . . KNOW the help and power at your beckon!

Call each attack of ‘lies’ as they are – LIES – and refuse to believe them as such. Put into practice what the Bible says: ‘Say and think what is the flip-side of what’s perceived and ACT as though it is done.’ If at first it is too difficult to say or think it, then say or do nothing at all; the moment will pass and you will find the ‘issue’ will also more quickly dissipate. As you get ‘retrained’ in this response the issues will begin to dissolve seemingly before your eyes and you will be able to respond with silent brotherly love energies instead! Poor? Say you are RICH! Bullied? Say you are LOVED!

When we step purposefully on the path to right thinking and living, we draw into our lives opportunities to ‘act and react’ rightly. Many of such circumstances are karmic and will repeat itself time and again throughout each lifetime until one ‘STOPS the PRESSES’ and gives the situation full attention of the Principle. It is awkward, perhaps, but keep on! And it will prove itself to you and assist in the courage it takes to step out of the flow of the common world. I promise you, from the results you will sense or/and see immediately, the awkwardness will be replaced with enthusiasm for the NEXT victory! And remember, each victory through the Principles is eternal – you may even forget it had ever been an issue in your life! Never forget to be profusely grateful for the opportunities presented in the liberation of your soul.

There is one specific Principle of God, meant for use in every situation and in every kingdom on earth (plant, animal, etc) called the Principle of Action-Reaction: When the REACTION is changed the ACTION has no choice but to change or completely disappear! God’s Principles are infallible and immediate . . . even if it is not visible to the naked eye, it has been set into powerful motion by your sincere desire to respond rightly. . . KNOW this! Simply stepping out in faith, with sincere pure intent, brings the entire ‘Good’ universe to your assistance, making it easier and more delightful, exciting, and effective with each attempt; it’s as though ‘God’ is ‘holding you hand,’ melting away the Path before you, ultimately raising you to exist with Him in the ‘high places’ as promised in Isaiah 58:14.

The common proposed remedy, in repetitive misbehaviors – in ANY kingdom, is to ‘pray’ or ‘believe’ or ‘punish’ the entity of that initiating behavior, that ‘action.’ Indeed, it is only when the ‘reaction’ is changed that the ‘action’ is freed to change and that soul released from its inadvertently self-inflicted prison. To comprehend and put this into dedicated action is to ‘lay down your life’ for the inflicted one, for it requires of you to SET YOUR PRIDE and sense of justice aside . . . that is TRUE LOVE . . . in ANY kingdom. And you will come to understand that, with each success through the Principles, the entirety of mankind is raised another level. Remember, we are all ONE – so that is why the relief you will feel is as though you took that healing action on yourself.

Always keep in mind that to be here on this planet Earth is for the purpose of ‘working out our salvation’ – those karmic debts (another Principle: Cause and Effect/ sow and reap); using this Principle of Action-Reaction will aide greatly in their passing! These debts have to be paid, yet a sincere change, attempt, commitment to living harmlessly CAN greatly reduce the impact and even cancel it completely; the Divine Principle knows when there has been complete victory. How we handle the execution of those debts determines the delight of our present life and future lives. In the individual practice of this Principle, the whole of humanity evolves according to God’s Great Plan. I know you can see it . . . be of great courage and start now. . . sincere effort counts!

It is required of us to eventually come to love all humanity. All efforts toward practicing the Principle of Harmlessness brings that possibility closer. As I put myself through this, and as I spoke last week on ‘how to wash your mind,’ in understanding the very makeup of my body being the same substance as all infinity’s and God’s, I released the struggle to LOVE and just simply let God’s love flow through me uninhibited. When a situation or someone ‘gets in my face’ and tries to block that flow, I remind myself that such a ‘block’ is also of the same substance and cannot block it! Thus, situations resolve divinely – as God would have it. Like water through a hose leaves its deposit in its path, in being a conduit for Divine Love, it bathes me also and I BECOME the love for humanity. LOL No, I have not perfected it, yet, and I’m grateful to have infinity to do so; yet, with every attempt, every ‘baby-step’ in that direction results in a GIANT leap for that practicing soul and for all mankind!

Let me present a caution to those dear souls, striving in their soul-perfection process and yet confused, frustrated, and even frightened for the ‘gales of circumstances’ bombarding them. There often comes a time in the life of all true believers and seekers in which certain unbecoming life styles, behaviors, schedules, fashions, favorite pastimes, etc, will begin to change and fade in priority and taste. Often, for those not in understanding of their Podvig – spiritual journey – it can result in confusion and concern and drive them to seek medical or psychological advice and treatment. Man always can conjure a name for such inquirers, call it a ‘disorder,’ and provide a prescription to treat it; it is one of the greatest dismays of our Master. But listen well as I tell you, those of you who choose to understand and move forward: Consider it that those changes are spiritually inspired from your seeking, diligent, and sincere heart for God. You are being moved from the ‘box’ which has kept your focus on Self, on the world views, on glamour and illusion. Be of great courage and trust your spirit to guide you in this new level of soul instruction. Be ever with an attitude of gratitude and trust. Be as the observer and ever-embracing of the changes and you will see with ‘spirit eyes’ – ‘eyes of your understanding’ – ‘ (Ephesians 1:18 KJV) and understand amazing things – and you will know without a doubt that you are riding on the ‘high places’ (Isaiah 58:14 KJV) with God. It isn’t the end of your growth, but it is most certainly another step. If we were given it all at once, our human minds would likely snap. God, through our soul, knows the best way and the speed in which to bring us each individually to a higher consciousness and, ultimately, usefulness in His Plan. Simply TRUST and understand you are being blessed!

Be prepared, also, for embracing and understanding those changes will most definitely set you apart; yet it isn’t something that you can force or pretend, which brings great danger in such deceit. You will recognize in your mind and spirit that ‘setting apart’ as you go about your daily life and conversations. When your actions follow your knowledge, it will become obvious, and most likely uncomfortable, to those in your general circle who are of little or no understanding yet of what you have chosen to experience in this, your evolutionary podvig. Be kind and patient with them, for we each have a specific time set for our spiritual awakening. Pray for them, set your example always through right actions and reactions, and press on with courage, for the entire universe works unceasingly for those who have made such a courageous choice. I tell you this for the TRUTH of it in which I have proven; I tell you all this to prepare you for those changes, that you will recognize them as the moving forward on your spiritual path, not the losing of your mind. TRUST your soul – which inhabits the Omniscience of God – to be your only confidant and Teacher (I John 2:27 KJV). Never boast and flaunt your experience, for your progress will be greatly hindered as such a practice alienates those souls on the Path behind you. This is not an easy spiritual path, for it requires great effort in changing from the world’s thinking to that of God’s. Be of good courage and faint not; spend no time in dismay, for it may take a lifetime or more to perfect it . . . yet, always remember ‘Sincere Effort Counts!’ This is the Principle – react divinely . . . or not at all – seeing it for what it really is, an opportunity to cancel a karmic debt or practice harmlessness.

Ageless Wisdom states that we are now in a period of tremendous spiritual potency and of opportunity to all souls desirous of liberation from the common worldly ways. It is the hour wherein a clarion call goes forth to man to be of good cheer and of goodwill, for deliverance is on the way.

But it is also the hour of danger and of menace to those unwary and the unready, for the ambitious, the ignorant, and for those who selfishly seek the Way and who refuse to tread the path of service with pure motive. Lest this widespread upheaval and consequent disaster to so many should seem to you unfair, let me remind you that this one life is but a second of time in the larger and wider existence of the soul, and that those of sincere effort who fail and are disrupted by the impact of the powerful antagonistic forces now flooding our earth, will, nevertheless, have their vibration “stepped up” to better things along with the mass of those who achieve, even if their physical vehicles are destroyed in the process. The destruction of the body is not the worst disaster that can overcome a man.

Sincere students need to remember that devotion to the Path or to the Master is not enough. God, the Divine Omniscient Principle, is ever seeking – ‘His eyes run to and fro over the world’ - looking for intelligent cooperators and workers, and a student who is walking independently in the light of his own soul is regarded as a more dependable instrument than a devoted fanatic. The light of his soul will reveal to that earnest aspirant the unity underlying all groups, and enable him to eliminate the poison of intolerance which taints and hinders so many; it will cause him to recognize the spiritual fundamentals which guide the steps of humanity; it will force him to overlook the intolerance and the fanaticism and separateness which characterize the small mind and the beginner upon the Path, and help him so to love them that they will begin to see more truly and enlarge their own horizon; it will enable him to estimate truly the esoteric – deeply divine - value of service and teach him above all to practice that harmlessness which is the outstanding quality of every son of God. A harmlessness that speaks no word that can damage another person; that thinks no thought which could poison or produce misunderstanding; and which does no action which could hurt the least of his brethren; this includes facial expressions and body language – this is the main virtue which will enable the sincere student to tread with safety the difficult path of development. Where the emphasis is laid upon service to one’s fellowmen and the trend of the life force is outward to the world, then there is freedom from danger and the aspirant can safely meditate and aspire and work. His motive is pure, and he is seeking to decentralize his personality and shift the focus of his attention away from himself to the group. Thus, the life of the soul can pour through him, and express itself as love to all beings. He knows himself to be a part of a whole and the life of that whole can flow through him consciously, leading him to a realization of brotherhood and of his oneness in relation to all manifested lives.

Such is the result of living in the Principles of Harmlessness and Action-Reaction. This is the life to strive for and remember, you ALWAYS have instant help – get in the habit of remembering that small but enormous fact. The Akasa – that Divine Manifesting Substance which IS us, as One with God and makes up our bodies and minds – is there AS a Principle for our use, AS God. Begin to believe it and USE it; it is not just there for manifesting physical needs, but emotional, mental, and spiritual needs, also. AKASA PERMEATES EVERYTHING! ‘ASK and ye shall receive.’

One last thing I would like to say, since I have been approached on HOW to grasp the concept – and power – of the manifesting thought. Think of it this way:

You go to the cupboard to get a piece of bread and the bread bag is empty. You intuitively note to get more, either immediately or within your schedule. And so it is done and now you have bread in your cupboard. That was the goal, right? But stop and think about this, did you ponder unnecessarily on the steps, the time, the effort it would take in the ‘getting’ of it? Most likely not; it was determined and it just got done.

Now, CONTEMPLATE on the moment you decided to have that bread in your cupboard again. Focus on that very MOMENT, that ‘determination’ – let it grow into closer focus – did you have any doubts or was it simply a FACT? You get such ‘determinations’ so often during the day that it is seldom, if ever, noticed. But NOW, you MUST bring it to the forefront. It may take many times of trying, but as you do finally see it face-to-face, introduce yourself to your new BFF – that is, ‘best friend forever’ in today’s jolly jargon! This is the ‘determination,’ the mind-set, the ease, the very ATTITUDE that you will mold your life with from this moment on. It is a Principle of God! Exercise that attitude with forefront consciousness several times a day – or at least often enough to not let it slide back into obscurity. When it becomes as autonomic as your breathing - as buying bread! - LOL, and your life circumstances portray it, you will recognize the victory and know what to do about it, file it away or keep it exercised. It’s a Principle and it’s YOUR ‘free-will.’ Be always and profusely grateful to God, for gratitude fuels this All-Powerful, Omnipotent gift!
